It is the Summer Solstice welcoming a refreshing change and a new beginning for the next year. I personally would like to wish all our clients and customers a wonderful Christmas and an abundant New Year. Thank you for your patronage and may we see you again and again in the coming year.

We have been so busy at The Seahorse that the newsletter comes right on top of Christmas shopping and get togethers. It is our wish that you all enjoy the festive season if you decide to make New Year resolutions and wish to really put them in place come and see our clinical hypnotherapist for weight loss and giving up those dreaded habits. Jenni is available from the 15th of January and is worth the visit. I have personally done the weight loss and it is working slowly but it is working.

For those of you with time over Christmas and New Year we have some wonderful new titles to read while lazing by the beach.

John Edwards has a new book out as does Wayne Dwyer. Look at improving your intentions and your intuition with these two famous authors.

We also have more Path of the Soul Destiny cards so beautiful and positive a great gift for yourself or others.

Meditation returns on Monday nights at 7pm and from February 7th we are beginning Spiritual guidance classes at 10 am til 12pm once a month. No bookings required $20 per person.

Please stay safe over the holidays

Blessings

Kerrie
